“ *Joy,
Although I can't be there today, I wanted to say that I learned many important life lessons from Pete.
He was a good man and knew what it was to be a real friend. He will be missed.*

“ Joy and Sara,

I am so sorry to hear of Uncle Peter passing. He was a wonderful person. I have some really good memories of him. One memory, I remember well, was him trying to teach me to dance when I was in the eight grade. Was it a good memory or a bad memory, it depends on the moment! You see up to that point, I thought everyone could dance if they knew how. Uncle Peter though he could teach anyone to dance. Well that afternoon proved us both wrong. Us both being part" Feist" in us, that afternoon brought out some good memories and some bad ones. Think over the years we both laughed about it. I remember the big size "78" records we were using. I never did learn to dance.

You both are in my thoughts today and sorry I could not come to the funeral.

Love, Gloria
