

Rachel Doris Ward

January 10, 2010

Rachel Doris Ward passed away peacefully Sunday, January 10, 2010. Born in Owen County, Kentucky and a long-time Frankfort resident, Doris retired after 35 years of service as an office supervisor with the Kentucky Teachers Retirement system. A true Kentuckian at heart, Doris loved the Kentucky Derby and University of Kentucky basketball. A truly unique woman and a generous spirit who was beloved by her devoted family and dear friends, Doris will be tremendously missed by all who knew her.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents, Lloyd and Gypsy Wilhoite and her sister, Melba Bradshaw, as well as her loving companion, Mr. Allie Noel. She is survived by nephews Paul Lee Beckley (Pam), Douglas Bradshaw (Fran), Jeffrey Bradshaw (Celeste), grand-nieces Erika Bradshaw, Ashley Cline, Sesamie Bradshaw, and Gwendolyn Beckley Wilhelm, grand-nephew Marshall Beckley, as well as many great grand-nieces and nephews who brought great joy and many smiles into her life.

Visitation will be held at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home in Frankfort on Thursday, January 14, 2010 between the hours of 4:00 pm and 8:00 pm. Funeral services will take place Friday, January 15, 2010 at 10:00 am at Harrod Brothers.

Pallbearers will be Douglas Bradshaw, Billy Cannon, James Cline, Ray

Dawson, Jeff Ellis, and Jeremy Young.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Harold and Betty Cannon, Eugene and Ramie Eiselt, Aleena Noel, and Charles Noel.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home LLC and condolences may be shared via the online guest book at www.harrodbrothersfuneralhome.com.

“ Jeff and Family,

I am sorry I was unable to attend the services for Doris. She was, indeed, a special person who touched all our lives.

She is surely in a happy place 'kicking up her heels'.

Thank you for caring for her.
