“ Lee, we are both so, so, so sorry for your loss. I know you will miss him forever, but try to remember the good times. You and Pappy made lots of memories to share, so think of those. Try to think of the positive things in life after death. He's himself and catching up with old friends. Can you imagine what a good time he is having free of pain and forgetfulness. Take care and may God bless you and your family in the days ahead.
