“ Papaw you have always took care of me through all these years and I am so glade that I had the chance and opportunity to return the favor and take care of you. I stood by your side night and day and am so thankful I got to walk through the tunnel with you I would have never missed it for anything. You were the greatest papaw anyone could have ever had and I will always remember our good times we had. I miss you and will always be thinking of you. Love your Lil S-
