“ Dear Mom, Helen, Norma, Hugh, Betty, Anne and all cousins and spouses,
Sorry we won't be able to attend as I am recovering from major surgery and just can't physically do it. Otherwise we would be there. We loved Sue very much. She was so sweet and I hate that she had the suffering she did these last months. Just more proof that this ain't heaven and we should spend this brief time here preparing for our real lives there! If they let you read this Sue, and if you're not having too much fun, say hi to Gabe for us. We'll see you pretty soon.
All our love,
Tom and Pam Lane

“ All of the Allen Family was very dear to me, I loved each and every one including Mr. & Mrs. Allen. We had a lot of good times together over fifty years ago when I play softball at the old State Stadium, Sue use to tag along behind me when we were at the ball park. Her passing was very sad for me but I know Sue is in a better place and she was ready to go, with all the suffering she had been through.
