“ To Jimmy and the family, I just want to express my condolences in the loss of Rena. I will always remember the times I have been in your home and the days when Rena and I worked at Human Resources. A chat and a laugh at her desk were a part of the work day. I'm thankful for the memories. Please know that when your footsteps get heavy, God will carry you. God Bless.

“ To the Family of Rena Smith,
I was so saddened to hear about Rena's passing. Rena was my best friend when growing up. We walked home from school every day. While we were about the same age, she still looked out for me when I was little. I always knew that she would be there for me. She will be dearly missed.

Because Rena was such a caring person, I know that there are many hearts that care about you and the way you feel today. My prayer is that God will continue to Bless and Keep the family during this challenging time. Stay strong.

Love,
