“ Rene` Siria

“ First let me say that Renee was tremendously proud of her family. She told us stories about David and Stephanie for years, even as they grew to be adults. Donna was the first to meet Renee as they worked through Leadership Frankfort together. Renee welcomed her into the group and their friendship extended long past their graduation. Each year we looked forward to our Christmas shopping at Completely Kentucky, which never occurred before December 23. Renee would quip, "And I thought your were going to wait until the last minute this year!" Renee was a smart, witty, fun-loving, thoughtful lady who enjoyed a good discussion on many topics, especially politics. Those were my favorite! She was a constant fixture at our polling station and we never had to show I.D. because she claimed us every time. Renee is a Frankfort treasure who will be dearly missed.

“ *Aunt Rene will be missed greatly. She was so spunky and spirited. Just spending a short amount of time with her, you knew just how much she loved her family, especially those grandbabies. We so much appreciate how much love and life she shared with everyone. Our hearts are with you during this difficult time. Much love!

“ I am sorry I was never able to meet Rene, but I have known her daughter, Stephanie, for the past several years. Stephanie has become my good friend, with a heart as big as the sea and a special presence that lights up a room. I know that Rene must have been this way, too, to have such a wonderful daughter. My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with your whole family. May God bless you with comfort and peace.

“ Bruce and all of Rene family. I hurt so bad for all of you esp all her friends and family. We have only been in Frankfort for five years and met Rene at Hope Lutheran Church as I think what Hope has lost then as I read the Journal today. I can only think really what Frankfort has lost. We will miss her and are prayers are with all of you.
