“ It seems like Rhonda has always been a part of our family. My brother, Michael met her when she was 14 and he was 17. I would have been 19 so for more than 40 years we have been connected. Though we sometimes drifted apart, we always came back together like we had never missed a beat. Rhonda had the kindest heart towards everyone and all animals. She loved with all her heart and was like the sunshine every day. I will miss Rhonda so much. I love you Rhonda...fly high lady.
