“ It's been nearly 2 1/2 years and I still miss my Richard every day. We had our 40th Class Reunion this past weekend and he was remembered well by all. My heart will always have a special beat that is Richard. Our love & friendship will always warm my soul and make me smile. My love and prayers to Richards family and friends.

“ Can't believe it has been nearly a year. My prayers are still with the family. Richard and I hung out a few times as kids. He lived in walking distance of my house.

“ I could not believe it when I found out today that Richard had passed away. My prayers go out to his family. Richard was such a great person even though we drifted apart after Marvin died. I know you will be missed very much by all your friends.

“ Life will not be the same without having Richard's place to go to for playing cards, corn hole, horseshoes, or sitting around the fire listening to Richard fuss about losing all the time! Also so thankful to have all the four wheeling trips and 'incidents' on those trips to remember. Before I started going four wheeling with Richard and Greg, Richard would say I was feeding his 401K fund by paying him to get Greg out of my hair for awhile and then bust out laughing and say 'ain't that right Chick'. Well Richard hope you are busy blazing new trails in heaven so we can all go riding together again someday . We will surely miss you until then. "Chick and Grog"

“ Richard took over our lawn mowing after another person could no longer do it for us. He was so friendly and I have to say could mow a yard faster than anyone I ever saw. I remember our granddaughter standing at the door watching him and getting the biggest kick out of him zipping up and back on that mower of his. When gasoline started going up in price several years ago, I told him I fully expected him to raise his price, which was phenomenal to begin with given the size of our yard, and he said he wasn't going to do that to his loyal customers. He took great pride in his work and it was always done with the greatest of care. He was always willing to do a little extra if I asked. I wrote a note on his final bill that I would see him in the spring. Our family will miss him, his work ethic, and his positive outlook and spirit. Our condelences to his family and friends. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
