Richard Paul Harbeck

September 19, 1943 – June 21, 2024, age 80

Harrod Brothers Funeral Home is arranging the cremation. There will not be a service or memorial in Frankfort. A private family Celebration of Dick's life will be held sometime in the fall, and he will be buried next to his parents, grandparents, and brother in Davenport, IA.

He died at Frankfort Regional Hospital after a long illness with 5 different cancers, he passed away suddenly from heart failure.

Dick is survived by his loving wife Christine Harbeck for the last 35 years, and his former wife Marcia Street. He had three children, Jason (Janet) Harbeck, Sarah Harbeck (Matt Kindell), as well as his late stepson Steven Kotajarvi. He has 3 beloved grandchildren: Aidan Harbeck, Allison Remy Kindell and Orin Kindell. He had one sibling, his late brother David Harbeck.

Born in Davenport, Iowa to the late Madelyn Alberta and the late Ernest Paul Harbeck. He is survived by Aunt Pat (late Bill) White and many cousins. His late aunt and uncles, Byron (Lucille) Zesiger, Richard (Louise) Cruson, Joseph (Bernice) Cruson. His family moved to Byron, IL where he graduated from Byron High School, class of 1961. He attended Southern Illinois University 1961-1962 and was a fraternity member of Tau Kappa Epsilon. In 1962 Dick served our country as a Marine Special Forces in the Vietnam war. He worked as a Project Supervisor at Dietz Electric Inc., Wauwatosa, WI, and Terminal Electric Inc., Milwaukee, WI. He moved to Frankfort, KY where he worked as a Contract Manager for 23 years of service at Art's Electric which is now called AE Electrical Solutions. He retired due to cancer.

Memorial donations may be made to the University of Kentucky, Markey Cancer Center where he received 15 years of treatment for cancer.
