“ Ric and I served in two Hawk surface to air missile batteries in Germany from 1984 to 1987. We had a lot of deep conversations about faith in God, the purpose of life, etc. He was one of my best friends during that time. Today is Easter 2019. I know that because of Jesus Christ and his resurrection, each of us will live again with an immortal body, free from physical pain and the troubles of this life.

“ I first met Ric at my son, Noah's, fundraiser in 2014 for his autism assistance dog at Wick's Pizza. I remember he brought a signed Rick Pitino basketball to sell to help Noah raise money for his dog. That ball sold for $1000.00. Ric was such a kind hearted, caring person who would help you in any way he could. He loved Noah so much and wanted to do whatever he could to help bring his autism assistance dog home. He was a good man and loved playing in his band. I never heard him play but I'm sure he sounded great. Now he's playing for our Heavenly Father. Ric rest in peace with no more pain or burdens. We will miss you here but one day we'll meet again. May peace and love surround your family in their time of sorrow and loss.
