“ Dear Susan,
We've only know each other for about a year now and of all places we meant on Pogo but I feel like I've known you for ever. I was so shocked to receive your e-mail about Bob. It truly is a great loss to you and his family and friends. I will always remeber all the times he would come in and when he knew we were playing a game he would send a "hello" through you.
You've talked of the many things you two have done and of the love you shared. I am sorry that we will never get to met your wonderful Bob but we do hope to met you some day as we have become good "Buddy's" on Pogo. I look forward to many stories of your life together as you will always have them in your memory to share with your family and friends.
George,myself,Buddy and Tigger send much love and many prayers to you and your family(Buddy sends love to Clio).
May God be with you my friend,
Peachy

“ Susan, I have been out of town and just learned of Bobs death. I returned too late for the services, but I want to extend to you my deepest condolences. I always looked upon Bob as a friend and I know you will miss him. My thoughts are with you and your family.

“ Susan:

While you and I worked in the same building for over twenty years, I really only knew you well enough to say hello. I just met Bob about three or four years ago. He and I were on the same schedule for going to the gym in the mornings before work. I truly admired his dedication to his work outs. He was there like clock work almost every day, and was always cheerful, even at 5:30 a.m.! Bob always had a kind word to say. I miss seeing him each morning. You and your family are in my family's prayers. May God give you the strength you need to cope with your loss and continue on your journey through this wonderful life he has given us.

“ Susan,

I am so sorry to hear that your husband passed away. He was so young. I've been down this path before trying to comfort my children so I do understand. There's hardly a day that passes that I don't think of you and miss working with you so much for no one could ever replace you.

Please just know that I have been and will continue to remember you and your whole family in my prayers, asking my Lord Jesus to comfort and strengthen each of you. I know that I was truly blessed by knowing you and am so thankful that our paths crossed.

I will be sending something to the Hospice of the Bluegrass in honor and memory of your beloved Robert.

“ Susan, I am so very very sorry to hear about Bob. My heart aches for you at this time in your life and I know it seems so unfair. I lost someone very dear to my heart a couple of months ago (my best friend's 35 year old son who took his life). We can't really question why things happen as they do, all we can do is cherish what we had with someone and live on for them. Please know I am thinking about you and wishing you healing thoughts.

Take Care.

“ Susan,

From the depths of my heart....I give you strength. I know that at times like this there is rarely something someone can actually do to make it easier. The process of healing may be slow and must come from within. I am still healing from the ordeal with Turner...few know the actual seriousness and near death of it. But, you know....that phone call you gave to us...and the "little package" you brought me...was more help than you'll ever know. I don't know what to do to make this any easier or to make any sense of the fairness of it. I can only let you know that I am with you and am there to bring you any "little packages" you might need in whatever form that might be.

We will be saying prayers for you and the family.

Your little cousin,

Cara, Mark, Taylor and Turner

“ Dear Alice and Family

I am so sorry to hear of Robert's passing. Having gone through this 2 years ago with the loss of Connie, I know what a difficult time this is and will be for you all. It is most difficult to accept that this is God's plan, and we can't know WHY it is God's plan. We, who are left behind, have to renew our faith and cherish the blessings that we HAVE received by having our loved ones with us. Each future day WILL be easier than the last to get through. Please remember all the happy times that you have shared and the promise that you WILL see each other again. Have faith and know that God loves us all.

I will pray for your comfort and I know that your friends and family will be there to comfort you. Again, my sincere condolences for your huge loss. God bless!!

“ Dear Friend,

I was very shocked and saddened to hear about Bob. You all were so lucky to have met and spent 22 years together. He loved you with a passion. I remember one day he just looked at you while we were on the river and he said "That is the most beautiful woman in the world right there." Even though I have not been in KY for many years now, I thought of you all more than you'd ever know. Please remember the all the good times. I wish I was there to give you a hug.

Sincerely,

Vicki Baker Currie

“ Susan - I know your heart is breaking right now - I wish there was something I could do to help (besides my pitiful effort in the food department). I have so many wonderful memories of our times together over the last 22 years - it's hard to believe that he's gone. His love of life & his love for you are the two things I will remember the most. Michael and I are here if you need us - just call. Jerri

“ Susan, I was shocked and saddened at the news of Bob's untimely and sudden passing. I know you feel as though half of your soul has been lost, and you will never be whole again. But Bob would have wanted you to remember the good times and the love and the laughter. He was blessed with the two things in life for which we all strive - love and happiness. He loved, and he was loved, and he, certainly, was a happy guy!

I remember Bob from high school, always with a smile, ever the wit, never angry, never judging. He was an intellectual who you knew could and would accomplish anything to which he set his mind. And he did. Even through the pitfalls to which each of us fall victim through our short stroll through life, Bob came out on top. And you, girl, were smart enough to keep him for 22 years! And, Susan, your precious memories of him will sustain you and someday make you whole again.

After all is said and done, we only have our memories. Those fleeting echoes of joy and pain, tears and laughter, good times and bad times that sustain us. Even as I sit here, writing this through tears, a smile creeps across my face as I reflect on you and Bob. What a joyous, interesting, wonderful, and sometimes challenging life you had together! And that's the way Bob would want us to remember him, with smiles and jokes and happiness and laughter. I know that he is smiling on us as we speak. We love you, Bob!

Susan, you and Bob's family are in my heart and prayers. I will be there on Wednesday to deliver my hugs in person and to revisit with you the life of Bob!

Love, Candace

“ Mrs. Wunderlich & Tommy,

I am so sorry to learn about your loss. I worked with Mr. Wunderlich, Bobby & Tommy years ago at Cardinal in Lexington. I have been in Louisville for 25 years, but sure have a lot of fond memories of all of you. We were all so much younger then, but memories are sure something which are a wonderful thing in life. All of you were such fine people. Mrs. Wunderlich, I remember the wonderful Christmas parties you had at your home for the employees, that was always special to me.

Once again, I am so sorry, all of you are in my thoughts & prayers.
