“ Miss you already! Thanks for the birthday calls and all the babysitting you did for Zach and me...haha. :) I always remember the Wednesdays at your house before Bible Quizzing and hearing you laugh on the home videos when I danced to Dolly Parton. I love you every day and you've taught so much in this last week that I wish I had a chance to tell you. -Katie Jo

“ Brother, I love you more than you'll ever know. You were an inspiration not only to me, but to so many others. That was evident by the huge crowd who came to pay their respects. You may not be with us anymore, but you will never be forgotten. When we talked in the hospital room before the surgery, I never imagined it would be the last time I would see that smile that was as big as life itself. Thanks for being my brother. You're the best !!!!!

I miss you,

Kev

“ I was deeply sorry to hear about Wayne. He was a very sweet, caring guy who loved life, even when times were hard. I worked with him for years at Sachs' and talked to him often about his love for his family. My thoughts are with Bonnie, Bill, Kevin, Stephanie and the rest of your family during this difficult time. God Bless and Take Care....

“ We all just loved Wayne. Couldn't meet a nicer person in your life. He was so much fun and Wayne and Johnny both loved cars. Terry and I can remember when Wayne and Bonnie were dating and someone would catch them in the closet smooching. Terry and I specially remember the great fun we all would have playing with Donna, Ronnie and Wayne. The Howard's Farms holds special memories in our hearts of great times and lots of laughs. The Howard family are great people and such fun loving folks. Wayne would want all of you to remember the funny things he did or said. Gain strength from your families and the Grand children will be proud of their Grand Father. Remember we will all cross each others paths one day.

Much love and strength sent to all of you from:
Donna, Johnny, Terry and George
