“ Robert was the most stubborn, hardheaded, strong-willed person that I have ever met. He was a little rough around the edges but, if he liked you and you needed something he was there, no questions asked. He would give the shirt off his back to help a friend or loved one. He was deeply passionate about his work and wanted people to respect that. Robert was very knowledgeable when it came to a lot of things, he has an old soul. He was very direct and straight to the point, he would look you in the eye and tell you exactly what he was thinking. He didn't care if it hurt your feelings, he would tell you the truth. Robert did what Robert wanted and he didn't care who didn't like it. He was always a good friend to me, and my family and I will forever treasure the time I had with him in my life. He will remain in my heart forever and will not be forgotten.

“ Here's a couple pictures Michelle and I found. It's gonna be so different without Robert. He was always around. He was the one that never got sick or if he did, it never slowed him down. Cancer doesn't discriminate. No matter who you are or what age you are. Cancer sucks!! RIP brother. You will be missed.
