“ Ron left this world a better place for his having been here. His life was a shining example of a true outdoorsman and dedicated steward of Kentucky woodlands and waterways. His vast knowledge of woodcraft, hunting and fishing enabled him to teach and mentor hundreds, if not thousands, of hunters and fishermen. His professional work enabled him to leave a better environment for all Kentucky outdoorsmen. Those of us that knew Ron are better men for having known him.

Ron was blessed in many ways. His work was doing the things that he loved. Linda shared his love of fishing. She was an ideal partner, supporting Ron with the deepest of love and caring only found in the heart of a good woman. Ron was a lucky man.

I was fortunate to know Ron for almost twenty years. I knew him as a humble man who reveled in the joy of comradeship. He always had great stories to tell. He never met a stranger. I will miss his stories, his mentorship, and his laughter. I look forward to the day that we meet again and we all get to fish the places that Ron and Ova have gone ahead to scout. (Knowing Ron, he will be talking an angel or two into putting a hook in the water too.) I am honored to be able to say 'Ron Schureman was my friend.'

Our most sincere condolences to Linda and all the family. Words cannot convey our deep sadness for your loss. We hope that the sure and certain knowledge that Ron abides with the Lord, and that we will all see him again one day is a comfort during this time.

“ Ron was a brother, good friend and mentor. We shared many enjoyable hours in his boat fishing, hunting and putting up woodduck boxes. He shared his love of the outdoors with me, and fishing for a big trout in the Cumberland River tailwaters is what I like to do most.

Linda shared his love of the river and fishing for trout, what a great partner she was to Ron.

He was nicknamed "Deer Slayer" by the HF Trout Tournament Bro Show, because each year he provided the venison for the Thursday night banquet. Ron was loved and appreciated by all the HF Brothers. At this years banquet I was able to tell Ron I loved him for sharing his love of the river & the outdoors, we should all be so lucky. Thank you Bro Ron

Our condolences to Linda, Dawn and all of Ron's family.

Dave Shuffett described Ron as, "A tall, white haired gentleman of German descent, who swears he was raised on beer not milk" know you will be missed, but know that your passion for life and the outdoors will be carried on by those who came to know you.

Bye for now, Love Dennis, Susan & Lauren

“ Many of us have lost a brother and friend in Ron. The sportsmen of Kentucky have lost a champion. There are no words I can find to express the sadness that I feel today.

Ron I know you and Ova are now sitting around the same campfire, save a seat for me and God willing I will join you one day.

Linda, Becky and I give you our condolences. Keep the faith and know that Ron is now in a better place and we are all the better for the time God let him spend with us.

“ My wife and I wish to offer our very sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ron. He was one of the most wonderful people we ever met in our lifetime and will be truly missed. During our encounters with him at Lake Cumberland each year with the HF Fishing Tournament, Ron was always the spark of friendship among our fellow members.

May God rest his soul and bring peace to his family.
