

Ronald R. Thompson

November 14, 1951 - December 20, 2023

Frankfort – Ronald R. Thompson, 72, passed unexpectedly from this life on December 20, 2023 following a brief illness.

He was born September 14, 1951, to the late Martha (Monroe) Thompson and Roy Thompson. A lifelong resident of Frankfort, Ronald was a graduate of Frankfort High School and retired from Nashville Wire Products.

He is remembered as a teller of tales and lover of people, life, music, nature and ideas. His laughter was epic. He seldom met a stranger or passed the opportunity to laugh share love and compassion with family and friends.

An avid gardener, he created an oasis of color and beauty in the middle of the city. Ronald loved music and fostered that love in his son and wife and any others who would listen.

He is survived by his only child, a son, Paul Vassar Thompson and beloved wife, Peggy (Aldridge) Thompson. Also surviving are brothers, Marvin, Rodney, and Darrell Thompson, and Gary Reynolds; a very loved niece, Monica Thompson; and special cousin, Arlene (Monroe) Johnson.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Wanda (Badders) Thompson; sisters, Phyllis (Thompson) Wilson, Susie (Reynolds) Jones, and brother, Larry Reynolds.

In accordance with Ronald's wishes, no funeral services will be observed. Yet his wife and son will plan a Life Celebration for a date yet to be determined.

Expressions of sympathy may best be shown by kindness to all fellow creatures, a pause to appreciate the beauty of nature and moments of enjoying your favorite music.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home & Crematory.
