“ Don't Quit

*When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low, and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow.
Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver lint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far,
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worse,
That you must not quit.*

“ *My dear great aunt Gay,
I want to send you my love in this time of loss. You are in my prayers. I know we may not see each other all the time, but seeing you the other day made me both happy and sad. Sad for so much time has gone by. Happy for I remember coming to your white house that sat on the hill when I was little. I even remember Ronnie giving us kids candy; when my mom said we couldn't have any. Ronnie may not be here in person this holiday season; but I know he's not here in person but you know he's always in your heart. As well as in all of our hearts.
I hope we keep in touch. I love you!!*
