

Rosemary Muchmore

November 27, 1932 - June 25, 2020

Rosemary Muchmore, 87, passed away in Kalamazoo, Michigan, on June 25. She was the wife of the late Ronald Neil Muchmore to whom she was married for 44 years. Together, they had three children, Neil Allen Muchmore (deceased), Angela Muchmore Patz of Seattle, WA, and James Allen Muchmore (Elaine Sayre) of Kalamazoo, MI. Rosemary was born on November 27, 1932, in Cincinnati, OH, to Frank and Vivien Strifler. She was one of four children. After graduating from Mariemont High School (Ohio), she attended the University of Cincinnati where she studied home economics and was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. While still in high school, Rosemary enjoyed appearing on her mother's TV cooking show, The Magic Tele-Chef, which aired on WLWT in the early days of television. This experience led to a lifelong love for cooking. Throughout her life, Rosemary collected thousands of recipes and prepared marvelous meals for her family to savor. In her spare time, she also enjoyed gardening, sewing, knitting, and quilting. Rosemary lived much of her life in Frankfort, KY, where she was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church. After retiring from her job as a clerk-typist for the Kentucky Department of Natural Resources, she moved to Kalamazoo, MI, to be close to her son. In addition to her children, she is survived by her sister (Suzanne Strifler), four grandchildren (Kally and Boone Patz of Seattle, WA, and Grace and Sadie Muchmore of Kalamazoo, MI), and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home on Thursday, July 2, 2020, at 4:00 p.m. Visitation will be at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. Rosemary will be buried at Rest Haven Memorial Park in Evandale, Ohio, on Friday at noon.

“ Rosemary was such a nice lady, I waited on her for several years at a local gift shop and she was always so friendly. Your family is in my thoughts at this time of loss.

“ Jim, Angela and families: Please know that our family shares in your grief in the loss of your mom. No matter the age or the number of years you have shared with her, losing your mom feels a bit like losing a part of yourself. It was a pleasure to have known her, and the fact she raised you two to be such wonderful people speaks volumes on her behalf. I read this at my mom's services. I hope it brings you comfort as it did to me. God Bless you all.

*Don't think of her as gone away her journey's just begun life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.*
