“ Rosemary was my grandmother and I loved her dearly. My sister, Stacey, and I grew up in Kentucky and then we moved when we were 9 or 10 years old. I miss having those years with Mamaw. I do remember some important conversations we had over the years. Early on in my marriage it was tough and she encouraged me to hang in there. When my father's mother passed away, Mamaw was one of the first to check on me at the funeral. She was there when my parents remarried. David and Danny were like brothers to us. I miss those sweet times. I will miss Mamaw, but I know she has a brand new body and is taking care of all the children in heaven.

“Roseanne, Emma, and family, I am deeply sorry for the loss of Rosemary. What a beautiful, sweet lady. I first knew her as Mrs. Semones, Roseanne's mom and later Emma's sister. I then had the privilege of working indirectly with this special lady at Human Resources for many, many years. She was a knowledgeable and trusted employee, someone I depended on for guidance in ensuring I did parts of my job properly. That's when I called her my co-worker and friend, Rosemary. The one thing that was always obvious in the years we worked together was her love for her family, through the stories she shared. Hugs, prayers and love to you all.
