“ I met Roy when he was sitting in my section at Lexington Legends games. The 3 years I'd gotten to know him he was a great guy, always smiling and talking about how proud he was of Nathan. He never let it show if he was in any pain or not. He was happy being surrounded by his friends, Danny, Joe, Buddy and others. He will be missed by so many.

Roy, I am so happy to have had you as a friend. RIP
