“ When I was a young boy my Dad (Paul Weber) and Sam traded farm work. They both worked horses. I learned a lot from both of them. Sam loved his horses and was very gentle with them. Sam was a kind person and would help anyone he could. He will be missed by all who knew him. Sam loved his church, his wife Sue and his farm. If there were more people like Sam the world would be a better place to live.

“ Sam Tracey was a Choatesville neighbor of my parents, Howard and Glema Collins. He was one of the finest men in the community, always willing to share the fruits of his labor to those around him. We were blessed to have known him.

“ Sam and his wife were great friends to my Grandparents Norman and Frances Moore , I remember going to their home many times when I was younger, I heard alot about Sam from my Dad Bubby and understand my Uncle David had great respect and love for Sam, also telling me himself he helped Sam on his farm, so he was good in many ways to my family, for many years I saw him every Sunday at church , the community has lost a good man , prayers.
