“ I have always liked the saying " Life is not measured by how many breathes we take, but how many moments take our breathe away " and I can say that this reziliant woman took many away from me. She was always telling me thank you but truthfully I should have been the one telling her thank you, because she is the one that made such a life changing difference in my life for the past year, and I will hold that in my heart forever. I love you Aunt San and I will miss you dearly, and you will never be forgotten because a part of you will stay in my heart forever. I am the one that was blessed to have you in my life.

“ You will be missed not only by the people that knew you but those who hadn't yet met you, only you and I will ever know how special that is. I know you are watching from heaven and will be an angel to them. I pray for many reasons but I rejoice that you suffer no more.
