“ When I needed a ceiling fan put up in my bedroom he came with a guy that worked for him and asked me when he seen my old ceiling fan " what's this supposed to represent hun?". Does it keep you cool? And my old ceiling fan only had 2 blades on it at the time. I said well not really, then he said I recon not hun, we'll get you fixed up and he put my new ceiling fan up for me and laughed the whole time. I love and miss you fly high until we meet again.

“ I never saw him that he didn't have a joke to share. We saw each other a million times through the years at every electrical warehouse that Frankfort has had. I have seen him perform musically as well. A talented performer, a one of a kind personality, a good electrician/business owner, and great family man. You will be missed and we pray for comfort. RIP my friend. Mark, Sherry, Phillip and Tater Wilson
