

Sherry Gail Rayma

December 26, 1946 - October 11, 2020

Frankfort – Sherry Rayma passed away October 11, 2020. Private services were held at Spring Hill Cemetery in Harrodsburg, KY on Friday, October 16, 2020.

Sherry Rayma was born in Harrodsburg, KY on December 26, 1946, to the late Hugh and Virginia Yeast. She was a graduate of Mercer County High School and retired from the Kentucky Department of Human Resources. Sherry enjoyed reading, walking, philanthropy, and caring for animals. She volunteered for the L.I.F.E. House for Animals, Simon House, Franklin County Women's Shelter, and various other charitable and community organizations. Most of all, Sherry will be remembered for her mentorship and service to others. She is survived by her son, Shane Willhoite; brother, Bronson Yeast; and niece, Bronna Scoggins.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital or the Franklin County Humane Society.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ I loved Sherry! She was true friend and a mentor to me. She was the kind of person that told you what you needed to hear, not what you wanted to hear. I'll never forget her quick wit, her kindness, and beautiful spirit.

“ I am so sorry to read of Sherry's passing. We both worked in the same office and both retired, so I lost touch. My sincere condolences to her family. She was such a nice person.
