“ I have been truly blessed to know Shirley for fifty years. We have spent many happy days together in many endeavors. The ones I remember most are of rock hounding, shell collecting, lugging driftwood home up long hills from the lakeshores. Her crazy sense of humor has lifted me out of many dark days. She was always so caring and kind. I will try very hard to celebrate her life in the face her loss.

My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

Love to all,

Linda Standau
