“ On behalf of Bob Mitchell and family it has been an honor to know and love and be loved by Shirley these past 51 years. She was a kind soul with simple needs. A new pair of flip flops and curled hair for the grocery store always made her happy. Shirley could make the absolute best biscuits, gravy, and sweet ice tea. Having her in this world made it a better place. She loved her family and was loved in return. Rest in Peace Dear Lady
