“ Hi Shane, Dale, Craig, Glen and Jody- We are very sorry to hear today about your dad passing away. We have enjoyed Shirley's visits and meeting with all of you over the years. We know all of you as a very loving and caring family. Anita will miss her brother very much as she talks about Shirley all the time. May The Lord be with all of you during this time. Shirley surely will be with the Lord forever.

“ To Shirley's boys and families.
Carolyn and I are so sorry to hear about the passing of Shirley. I will always remember the times when you all as a family were associated with us when you were young and how you all and Jeff and Andy were together a lot.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ When talking on his visits to UK, there never seemed to be a generation gap with Shirl. Even when I was young I can remember addressing him as “Uncle Shirley”;. It was always simply - “Shirl”; & “ and that says it all. More than an uncle. A good man. A good friend. Be at peace. Roy
