

Stephen Garrett Hoover

December 24, 1946 - January 20, 2015

Stephen Garrett Hoover, age 68, passed away Tuesday, January 20, 2015, following a brief illness.

He was born in Frankfort on December 24, 1946, the son of Etta Mae Hamilton Hoover and the late Compton Garrett Hoover, and the grandson of the late John L. Hamilton and the late Ruth Hoover of Frankfort. Steve was a longtime resident of the Highlands, Louisville and an ardent lover of good books, music, movies, history, food, nature and animals.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his sister Marietta Hoover Caudill and her husband, Edward Gene Caudill of Goshen, KY; his uncle and aunt, Jack and Karen Hoover, Frankfort; and several cousins and friends. His family and friends will miss his loving kind and gentle ways.

Graveside services for immediate family will be held Friday, January 23rd at 1:00 p.m. in Frankfort Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy are suggested to Salvation Army of Louisville.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ Still miss you more than ever, my Brother. You were one of a very few these days, both kind hearted and gentle. You were such a lover of good music, books and movies and we hope you know that you're thought of so much when some special movie or song comes on. You're and Eddie's birthdays will soon be here, again. E says he can hardly celebrate without you. We so miss your frequent sillies and quirky ways. With you and mom and dad gone, my arms are so empty. It never occurred to me that being the youngest, I might be left alone, without my core family. How empty that leaves me. Just know you remain deeply loved and missed. Huge hugs to you, mom and dad...forever and always! Your sis, M
