“ Sending up prayers to Steve’s family and friends. This has been such a hard loss to everyone. Steve was so many things to people; he was always thinking of others. When someone is that large in others’ hearts, there are many great memories to be remembered and shared. I believe he’s been made whole again, with no pain or sickness. I’m positive he still has that charismatic smile on his face. When you think about that smile, doesn’t it make you smile too? I believe Steve will continue to watch over us all as he did when he walked among us. Rest comfortably in God’s care, Steve. We all love you, miss you, and will remember you until we meet again.

“ It was with great regret that I received the news of Steve Clark's passing this past week. I offer sympathy and condolences of myself and my family to Steve's survivors. I knew Steve since I was a child, we met when I was about 9 years old. I knew him through high school and had become reacquated with him during a 2010-2013 homecoming to Frankfort. I will miss him as we had remained in touch the last 5 years from time to time. May he now rest in peace.

“ I had known Steve (and his brother Scott) for nearly 60 years. His mom and my mom were good friends and were roommates out of high school. We went to school together and worked at the Frankfort Police Dept. together for over 20 years. Steve was a good and honest man as well as a friend. I'll miss his contagious smile, quick wit and his funny stories. Rest in peace my friend...

“ To Steve's daughter, grandchild and brother, may you feel Gods peace I believe that Steve did. Steve was my friend for over 30 years. He was a good man, friend, public servant. I always appreciated that Steve would look back over his life and try to do better going forward than he'd done in the past. I believe God honors us for that.
