“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. I worked with Bob when he worked in the purchasing department at AOC. He ordered alot of supplies for our printshop. He shared many family stories with us. He loved his wife Susan and his family so very much. Pam Cloyd

“ *Our heartfelt condolences go to Susan's family. Our grief is difficult to put into words at the passing of our dear friend Susan. We were friends for so many years and I was always welcome at the "Wunderlich Hilton" when commuting to Frankfort for work. Likewise, we had many special times on Susan and Bob's visits to Atlanta. We wish we could attend in person to share the loss and celebrate her life with family, former work colleagues and the DT crowd. May peace be with our beloved friend as she goes to reunite with Bob. “ My heart goes out to all that new Susan and loved her. We lost her way too soon. She was a kind and gentle person and has left a permanent mark on all who were privileged to know her.

“ Grateful for our many years of working together, friendship, joyous gatherings, living large, and quiet times. Savoring memories of your 60th birthday when we went to "Ghost Brothers of Darkland County" at the Kentucky Center, took a carriage ride and had our "slumber" party at the Galt House. Rest easy kindred spirit. Love you!

“ I meant Susan about a year before Bob passed, we were buddy's on Pogo, she would come on and I would let her vent her feelings and she always said she was sorry foe venting and I told her that's what friends are for. She in turn did the same for me when my husband passed. She was just that type of person. I will so miss her, my prayers to her family.

“ Such a shock to read! I had the privilege of working with her and she was always helpful and kind. We saw each other not long ago and agreed to have lunch soon. So very sad for all of you.

“ My dear family. Sorry about your loss. When the enemy death strikes, the sting of death can be very painful, and can leave us with emotions that are hard to understand. Know that when you pour out your heart to God (Psalms 83:18) in prayer, He will give you His Peace that surpasses all understanding to guard your thinking and your heart. May the family stay together during this difficult times.

“ To the Wunderlich Family: I am sorry to hear about Susan's death. It is never easy to deal with the death of a loved one no matter the circumstances. May God's promise to bring back to life many of our loved ones who have passed serve as a source of comfort during this time of grief (Acts 24:15).
