“ I met Sylvia when she moved back to Frankfort four or five years ago and we became the very best of friends. We did so many things together and I have so many wonderful memories of her. She had just helped me celebrate my birthday the previous Sunday and we had such a good time and then a week later she was gone. She loved her family so much and was so proud of them. Her sister's children were like her own and their children were like her grandchildren. She said many many times "my sister left me a family". I will be praying for all of you as you grieve for the loss of Aunt Sissy.
