“ Dear Sylvia.

*If tears could build a stairway and memories were a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness and secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A cherished place within our heart
Is where you'll always stay*

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the family of Sylvia Thibodeau. When a love one dies it deeply hurts. This is why God holds out a wonderful promise to all of mankind at Revelation 21:3, 4. There it says:

"With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: Look! the tent of God is with mankind, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

This scripture has not been fulfilled yet; but, Jehovah God promise that it will be in the near future.

Additionally, the scripture at John 5:28, 29 partially says:

"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."

What a wonderful hope!
