“ Tammy desperately wanted to live quietly on the farm with her long time companion James(Stretch) and their dogs. She wanted to be FREE of the constant chaos, drama and craziness that surrounded her .

My sister- her mother-dreamt of that too-

They would talk endlessly, about the house they would build-each with their own dream.

Tammy wanted to angle her home so the morning sun would shine in on her. “More vitamin D” she would say! Tammy wanted a wrap around porch to enjoy the beauty of her farm -oh the plans she had!!! I can hear her now!

I hope they are together now-looking down and sharing their dream!!

Tammy was in such pain- medically, physically and emotionally-she was so tired of the daily stresses and the fight to continue .

After extubation, Tammy passed quickly peacefully without a struggle.

Rest easy my dear niece~May the Angels in heaven guide you to eternal happiness ❤️ I will miss you~ Aunt Cathy.

“ Miss Tammy where do I begin? We have known one another since childhood. All those Thanksgivings at Memaw Perkins little house in the woods hunting mistletoe, til Family Reunions out at the Farm, til Christmas Eve at my Mama's house til current day. I so wish we had more time together, but we did make the most of the time we did have as best as we could. Your Faith in Jesus Christ has seen me through some tough times. Your smile was infectious. Your eyes twinkled when you talked about your nieces and nephews, especially when you were talking about their babies. You were probably the proudest Aunt in the world. Rest easy Miss Tammy you fought longer than most people would have which is a testament toward your strong character as a person as well. I Love You and will miss you. Until we meet again in our Mansion in Heaven. Love Mickie. P.S. (the picture of the Dove was taken by your Aunt Cathy out my front window the next morning after you passed away. And your furbaby Miss Sasha sends her love too Mama).
