“ Reverend Thomas Lawhon had a life of faithful devotion and selfless sacrifice for his Lord and friend, Jesus Christ. He was once offered to be the pastor of a large, several thousand member congregation church down south. This would have had a positive outcome for his income. He told me that he put his faith and trust in the Lord. He went and did as the spirit guided him. He turned down that offer, and instead ministered to smaller congregations comprised of flock who were poor. He was blessed with his needs sufficiently provided for. Through his faith, he was able to heal the sick, cast out evil, and plant the seeds of faith. A truly kind soul, who was blessed by faith, hope, and charity. I look forward to someday, shake his hand, hug this humble servant, and enjoy the fruits of salvation.

“ 7 years too late, it seems. I used to take Brother Lawhon to and from his church in my wheelchair van. He truly was a joy to be with. He was so happy and full of love and faith in his saviour and friend Jesus. He would sing Going up to my Jesus, when I elevated him in my wheel chair lift. One time he was sick and I asked my bishop to give him a blessing. Afterwards, my bishop said he was old and probably would not get well, again. When I got home, I fell to my knees and prayed for him not to die with sincere pleadings and tears. I was given a thought. I followed the prompting and went Krogers. There i purchased several bottles of Pedialyte. I took them to Thomas. He drank them, and was made well, again. I praise the Lord for loving him so much to have touched my heart, so much to get an answer to my plea. He has been in heaven for 7 years, now, but I think of him from time to time.
