“ When I think of Tim I see that smile on his face and the sound of his laugh. I think of the way he loved talking about his wood work and the time he showed me things he had made with his very skillful hands. The bowls he made along with the walking stick he made and gave to me will forever give me a smile remembering the sweet caring man whom I was given the blessing of knowing. He had spoke often of Buddy the lab that had passed away and I loved the way he enjoyed watching George play ball. My prayers are with friends that will miss him and with his very caring loving wife and my friend Lorraine along with his loving devoted son David and sidekick Mark. We all are in pain from God calling Tim home but it is good knowing he is free from his earthly shell and has been given a new body with no pain and no sadness. He will be missed.
