“ My Dearest Grandfather:

I remember the summers I got to spend in Kentucky with you when I was a very young girl. I can only hope that you knew how much you were and still are loved by me. You were the man in my life when my father was absent. I learned so much from you. You will always be close to my heart and I will miss your presence in my life. I know I didnt get to see you very often as I got older, but I never forgot you and I never forgot your birthday. I will always cherish our last days together. Even though you could not speak to me and could not get awake enough to speak to me, you could squeeze my hand when I talked to you and that was enough for me. You are at rest now and with my mother and that is very comforting for me. You and mom need to take care of each other in Heaven and I will see you both again one day. I love you both very deeply. I will see you when The Lord calls me home. Love always, your granddaughter Joy Ann
