“ Expressing my sincerest condolences to Jerry's friends and family.

Heaven is a brighter place today as a true scholar, gentleman, and faithful man has been laid to rest. I will never forget, or be able to repay, the influence, mentorship, and teachings that Jerry imparted on me.

I had the honor of knowing and working under Jerry for a number of years while he was in the transportation consultant business. Not only did he teach me the business and art of commercial transportation, but more importantly he taught me how to be a better person. I truly believe I would not be the person I am today if not for him. RIP Jerry Der.

“ I am sorry for your loss. You and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers. I love the story about the Kentucky game Michelle, he seemed like a good guy and it was a shock when I heard the news. Stay strong and God Bless. Keep your head up and we are all here for you.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Jesus said; "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out,..."(Joohn 5:28-29) May Jesus' promise comfort you.
