

William "Bill" Charles Wash

September 17, 1934 - August 29, 2014

William Charles Bill Wash, 79, of Frankfort, Kentucky, passed away peacefully under the care of the Hospice of the Bluegrass at St. Joseph Hospital on August 29, 2014.

He was born September 17, 1934, in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, the son of the late William Collins and Evelyn (House) Wash.

He studied Engineering at the University of Kentucky after honorably serving in the Kentucky Army National Guard and the United States Army. As a self-employed home builder and developer, he was influential in the residential development and building community of Franklin County.

He is survived by his wife of 56 years Delores Lois Wade Wash and their three children Mark (Debbie) Wash, Todd Wash and Laura (Matt) Rutledge. Also their six grandchildren; Bridgette (Ramsey) Wash-Quarles, Jessica (Kevin Bubba) Martin, Amber Wash, William Wash, Shelby Rutledge and Joshua Rutledge; two great grandchildren Ella and Barrett Martin; and sister, Jacquie Wash Woodward.

A celebration of life will be held for family and friends from 5-7 p.m. on Wednesday, September 3rd at Harrod Brothers Funeral Home in Frankfort, Kentucky. His remains have been donated to the University of Kentucky's

Bequeathal Program.

The family requests in lieu of flowers, donations be made to Disabled Veterans Association, the Kentucky National Guard Memorial Fund or Hospice of the Bluegrass.

Arrangements are under the direction of Harrod Brothers Funeral Home.

“ John 5:24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

The transition between life and death for the believer can be viewed as a comma--a pause. Your loved one lives on and is resting in Heaven.
