“ Time does prove that we can survive the loss of a loved one. I promise the longer it goes the pain will fade. His precious memories will live on in your heart. God promises that if we believe in Him, we will be with Him. I remember not being able to breathe after mine and Jason's Mother passed in 1999. Well, here I am in a different place in my life. I cannot tell you the pain will go away it will just be less as these years pass. You remain in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My condolences for the loss of Billy. He loved Debbie and Jason so much. He was always fun to be around. He called Jason his buddie. We have more to go to heaven for than we had yesterday. We appreciate all that you as a family gave him. He will be missed.

“ Praise the Lord for all of the help Brenda Long gave to my brother, Billy. I appreciate all of the care the rest of the family also. It broke my heart not to be there. But that was simply not possible. I can't wait to see Billy again. When we all get to Heaven he will be waiting for me. Love from Debbie & Jason

“ We are so sorry to hear about Billy, my mom (Bobbie) and I thought the world of Billy. My daughter Reagan was the first diaper Billy ever changed, and he was so proud of that. We loved him, Billy was a great man.
