“ Anne, so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He took me under his wing for my first job and showed me a work ethic that I still use today. I would type a letter and he would laugh, saying that I type the way I talk, which is not the best. Then I made my way working with you. The laughs, playing cards and the thoughtfulness that you both showed me over the years will never be forgotten. Love Hugs and prayers to you all.
