“ My God...where to start? Bill and I go back to early childhood, we having been neighbors in Willowcrest for years. We skipped school and made our way across farmland to get to Doc Snyder's farm pond to fish, rode motorcycles together, jumped things on them we had no business jumping. We hunted squirrels in the graveyard on Julian's farm, what we called "Squirrel Alley." We fished the Game Farm to death, taking more fish from there than anywhere he and I ever fished. His father, Bill, Sr., used to take us to Jamison's pond in Shelby Co. when we were just kids. I was also the best man at his wedding. I haven't seen Bill in years but I, along with so many others, will see him again at some point. So for now, I will keep his soul in my prayers and the time we spent as kids close to my heart. Godspeed, Brother.

“ So sorry for the loss of Bill. Bill and I were the best of friends all through school. Had some really good times together. We kind of lost touch after high school. But always remained friends. Prayers sent to the family. God Bless and R.I.P. old friend.
