“ Billy has always been the cousin with the huge smile, tight hug and that deep voiced greeting of “how ya doing , it’s so good to see you”. I remember when w were really young him carrying us on his back to the outhouse laughing at us in Millville cause we were afraid of the chickens , and in later years coming over on Clinton St when we came down on vacation running and playing laughing and talking with us over in the State yard across the street from where the Mapps lived then. In later years he cut every guys hair in our family for our Moms homegoing. He could cook as well and wanted to know if I got some of the delicious brisket he prepared. he also gave me my first professional haircut when I went to college and my Afro was the stuff. We have a close bonded family that grew up like brothers and sisters so each one that leaves us us leaves a huge void...we truly love and miss every single one of them. Rest well sweet cousin!

“ I worked with Billy for several years and the Kentucky Labor Cabinet. I never saw him without a kind word and a smile on his face. I loved our 'chats' and I knew that if I needed anything -- big or small -- he would be there to help me. He will be missed by so many folks; I feel blessed to have known him.
