“Mrs. Howard, I am so very sorry to hear of your loss. I hope you are at least coping with this. You two are so special when you come in the office to see Dr. Monnin. We will certainly miss seeing him. As you know he is in a better place. We hope to see you back in the office soon. May God Bless You and your Son during this difficult time.

“Bill and Betty are wonderful neighbors and we loved Bill and will miss him. We have wonderful memories of long conversations by the fence or around the kitchen table. Rest in peace Bill we will continue to watch over Betty and pray for her recovery. Our thoughts and prayers are with Betty, Mike and CJ and their families. May the Lord guide you and hold you so near during these most difficult times.
