“ Crossing Path
Song bird in sunlight plays Glistening clouds of silver gray Glide along while shadows play on earths fragile morn Traveling on in mortal form listening to a distant storm On which our thoughts were born and time does slowly fade
Children in the sunlight play Happy for another day While grownups struggle past seeing things they once had grasped As time withers us away and turns us gray For mortal man holds within a soul of which no death can grasp So take time to help your children grow where love is deep and vast.
Death is not a memory but a crossing path!

“ To the family of Bill, I wish you my deepest sympathy in the loss of Bill. He was a great man, great friend, and a great worker. He always stopped to talk with me when ever he saw me, I will never forget his friendship and kindness. You and Bill are in my prayers.

“ Rita, Tammy, Mark, & Eric it is hard for me to say in person what I need to sometimes but I wanted you all to know how sorry I am. You and Billy and the kids are very special to me even though we don't spend a lot of time together. The love and support you provided when I was a child/teenager has never been forgotten. Eric said to me Saturday that he knew his dad got on me sometime for smoking but he knew it was because he loved me. I knew that and told him Billy seemed to think I was one of his kids. I think it was because I stayed with you all a lot. Words cannot express how sorry I am but I can say I am here to support you all in anyway I can.

Love,

Jackie & Nathan
