“ I will remember Bill for his integrity and principles. He was a lot of fun, always smiling and witty. He was a planner and was driven to achieve his goals, whether it was with his career or personal life. I remember when he was diagnosed with T1DM... he saw the famous “oat bran Dr” and he was determined to beat the odds with his diabetes. My dog,” Joey” adored Bill and I think it was mutual. My college years at UK were some of the very best, mostly because of Bill. I cherished our friendship and will miss him greatly.
