“ We met almost 10 years ago during a very difficult time in my life. Zach was the best friend I ever had, and I'll never forget him. I only just recently learned of his passing, and I can't even express the amount of grief im experiencing. Zach was such a positive light in my life and everyone who had the good fortune to meet him. He was such a fun guy to be around, and he always knew just what to say in any situation. Thank you so much for all the amazing times we had gaming together, and all the meaningful late night conversations we had together over the last decade. I'll never have another friend quite like you. I love you so much man, and I hope that one day we'll meet again. ”

“ I met Zachary almost a decade ago and he was my best friend. I knew from the start that his health was poor and would only get worse, but In that time we had fun together as if nothing would happen. We went through many phases and changes together, playing games, listening to music, watching movies and shows. At the modest of times just talking, not even trying to make each other laugh, yet somehow finding ways to do so. It was his specialty, helping others feel good about life despite it being so hard on him in particular. It never deterred him, his personality, his humor, charisma and kindness would shower outward. In his own way he was a soldier, kept a level head and a smile at the end of the day through everything, always able to look at the bright side of things. He has left a mark on my life just has strong as he was.

Zach, I love you, you won't ever leave my heart.
