“ I had the privilege of being Zachs job coach while he was in Louisville, he was such a bright and engaging young man, and I am truly saddened by his passing. He kept in touch when he left to go to TN... I am so very sorry for your loss. He made a huge impact here, he was always so kind, positive and helpful. This picture is from Thanksgiving when he accompanied myself, other staff members and participants in our program to go serve breakfast at Wayside Christian Mission. He was so kind to the folks we served that morning, so loving and did not leave a table without telling the people sitting there that he loved them. I am grateful that I had the opportunity to know and work with him, and find a small amount of comfort knowing he will be watching over us all.

“ Zach and Bubby were best friends through middle school and most of high school. They were inseparable, what one didn't think of the other did. Zach spent many days and nights at our house. Where he stole a piece of my heart and I considered him one of my own. He had a kind heart and yet a troubled soul and The memories and laughter we shared so many years ago, will carry us through this horrible time- we love you Zach!

“ We went to school together our whole lives.. You were my first kiss when I was 7.. You were a friend for so many years... We lost touch after high school but you will always have a place in my heart and the memories we shared are countless. You may have taken a wrong path in life but I really thought you were doing good after being let out of jail.. You're with your mama now .. In no more pain.. Not suffering anymore. My heart hurts so much knowing class 2011 lost another one.. Rest in peace Zach. You will be missed..😭 Another young one gone to soon...

“ When Zach was young, we took him on vacation with us sometimes. The first time we took him to Destin, Florida he was asleep when we got there. The sand is snow white there. When he woke up, his Uncle Tim told him it had snowed while he was asleep. He had him going for a little bit. We had alot of fun with Zach. Hope he is at peace now. Love, Aunt Terrie
