“ *Dear Belinda and family,
Bobby and I were so very sorry to hear of the loss of your precious little boy. We are at a loss for words. We know you are going through the most horrible pain now and wish there were words that could help sooth or ease your pain but there are none. Please know our hearts, our prayers, our thoughts are with you and your family. God be with you and comfort you.*

“ *I am so very sorry for this heartbreaking loss. I cannot imagine the pain that you are endearing. Just remember, he is in gods arms, watching over you, feeling the love that you have for him. I do not know your entire family, but Tanner, please know that the entire afternoon bus sends you love, a shoulder to lean on, and strength. “ As I sit here and try to find the right words to say, I realize there are no words..... My heart is heavy, Zac was a beautiful child and so full of life and I'm so thankful for the honor of knowing and loving your precious little man. Our loss was Heaven's gain. Please know that we are here for you all and that we are praying without ceasing. If EVER you need anything, don't hesitate. We love you all and are here for you in whatever the need.

Zac is not Gone

*Zac is not gone,
He is changed.
Have faith and please believe this.
God did not take him away from you.
God split the skies and received him.*

Now.....

*Zac's an echo in your laughter,
a reflection in your tears.
An extra thread of strength to help you overcome your fears.*

*He's an added ray of sunshine,
more joy for you to share.
He's a fragrance of the life you live.
wherever you are-he is there.*

*Praying for you.....
Love ,

“ My heart is broken for the Marcum family at the loss of this precious, beautiful child. He was the youngest Hospice and CDS volunteer ever. He was eager to offer his special type of "Zac help" to any project.

Belinda & Steve, you are wonderful parents. I have not had the pleasure of getting to know Tanner, but Whitney has been a true blessing to Joshua's class. I know Tanner is a blessing to his world just as his parents are to mine.

Praying for you without ceasing as you face the days ahead.
